

STARK BEAUTY

Influenced through the works of abstract artists such as Sam Gilliam, Jackson Pollock, and Christopher Wool, STARK's new Veera Collection boasts intricate detail with explosive design. Each rug shares its own story, capturing a room with its unique personal arrangement. Inspired by the rich culture and heritage of the company's international mills and the artisans behind each piece, the collection includes a curated selection of the most premium rugs on the market, including the Ether Skyblue shown here. Available through STARK, to the trade, www.starkcarpet.com

GEOMETRY RULES

A hand-painted functional work of art, Arte Nel Design's Tower Cupboard is both bold and elegantly inspired by the dynamic geometries of Kandinsky. The front face boasts a colorful, eclectic form on a white background with a semi-gloss lacquer. Make this your statement furniture piece or inspire the imagination of young ones as a functional item in the children's room. Available in other designs. Available through Artemest, $37,700, www.artemest.com

TABLE TALK

Reminiscent of Henry Moore and Noguchi, Julian Chichester's Rotary dining table has a commanding presence with its brutalist texture, finished in a signature Dante brass or dark bronze. Standard with a sixty-inch smoked-oak top or, if preferred, a black-stained oak or bleached oak. Available through Circa Interiors & Antiques, $10,335, www.circainteriors.com
