

WHAT'S NEW

COCKTAIL TIME

Designer Laura Kirar's clean and simple aesthetic is evident in her eponymous collection with Baker, which includes the Shield drink table in brass with a white onyx top. $3,885, available through Safavieh, Stamford, safaviehome.com, bakerfurniture.com.

TREE TOP

A single base supports seven individual tabletops in the Cirlet cocktail table by Bernhardt, finished in industrial graphite. $3,020, available through Lillian August, Ilinanaugust.com, bernhardt.com.

Mixed Materials

Occasional tables, consoles and shelving pieces are top performers in metal, stone and wood

MODERN ART

The striking silhouette of the Calloway console from Made Goods is fashioned from iron in an aged-brass or aged-silver finish with an ivory faux shagreen top. $5,500, available through CD Interiors, New Canaan, cdnewcanaan.com, madegoods.com.

GLAM SQUAD

A blend of midcentury modern and Hollywood glam, the Octavia coffee table from Ethan Allen gleams in an Ascot finish with champagne-colored brass supports. $1,579, Stamford, ethanallen.com.

FRANCOPHILE FURNISHINGS

Inspired by a 1940s cabinet by French designer Jean Royens, the Moreau console from Julian Chichester features a smoked-oak frame and vellum inserts. The natural variations and tone of the parchment panels ensure that each cabinet is unique. $8,985, available through Lynne Scalo Design, Greenwich, lynnescalo.com, julianchichester.com.

